Daily Quote...

"[Rep. Peter] King, the chairman of the Homeland Security Committee, said that Republican leaders have to be careful to avoid the perception that they did not make a good-faith effort to raise the [minimum] wage. 'I think we should do it,' said King, whose district was added last month to a list of competitive races compiled by the nonpartisan handicapper Charlie Cook. 'Rather than play games, just do it. If voters think you're being cute it ends up backfiring.'" –
